Greetings!

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the Indianapolis Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA) Summer Invitational.

Founded in 2006, Indy GAA aims to share the ancient sports of Ireland with Indianapolis and central Indiana. Today, teams from all over the Midwest will come together to compete at the Indianapolis World Sports Park, a premier athletic destination in our city. This unique event is more than just a one-day competition—your participation highlights important cultural aspects of these ancient sports while actively preserving them.

Whether you are a permanent resident, first-time visitor, or frequent guest, I hope you have a memorable experience here in Indianapolis.

Best wishes to all participants for a successful and enjoyable day.

Warm regards,
